

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT BY THE AUSTIN SCHOOL

Do you work with students who can be tricky to manage? Do you want to explore ways to work with students who have a trauma background or display behaviours of concern at school?

We'll come along to:

Managing Trauma & Behaviours of Concern in the Classroom

This highly engaging, hands on full-day workshop will explore the preventative strategies that assist students with challenging behaviours to be more successful at school. De-escalation strategies and Sensory Intervention techniques will be explored. A step-by-step management plan for when things get difficult and proactive behaviour support plans will also be covered.

The Austin School provides specialised educational services to students aged five to eighteen years who have significant emotional, physical and/or psychiatric problems. Teachers work closely with the multidisciplinary team from Austin Health and liaise with the student's home school.

Matthew Di Domenico is a qualified teacher with a Master of Education (Special Education, Inclusion & Early Intervention). He has worked in both Mainstream and Special Education settings. Matthew has worked at the Austin School for almost 7 years in the Child Inpatient Program, Social Education Program and Social Skills Program.
